Welcome

to Anders E-News, a regular update of products, services and market information.

Since 1952, we have been helping people interact with technology by streamlining the display interface and optimising the user-machine experience.

Probably the world's smallest and most energy efficient PC - Exclusively from Anders

- > Small enough to fit on the palm of your hand
- > Uses only 10% of the electricity of a standard desktop PC
- > An ideal solution for home/office desktop, home entertainment, Point-of-Sale, classroom computers and a multitude of other domestic and business applications.
- > Can be utilized as a ready-made solution or as a basis for bespoke systems. Re-branding available.
- > Exclusively from Anders in the UK

As a thank you to all our loyal existing customers we are offering a 10% discount until the 7th May 2009 on all FitPCs purchases, using code 10FPCNL0409 at the checkout point.
