

There's an easier route into China...

One phone call from Infinity can accomplish what thousands of Mongol soldiers couldn't - opening a route into China.

The co-founder of China's first onshore VC fund, Infinity has unmatched access to the right people, financial institutions, and governmental bodies in China. Backed by a powerful network of strategic partners including IDB, Friedman Billings Ramsey, and GE Investments - we can help you not only choose the right doors in China, but open them, too.

With over 13 years of successful investment experience, $250 million under management, eight successful exits in the past 12 months, and four investments in Israel-China related deals - Infinity offers both entrepreneurs and investors true added-value in Asia.
